

Valentine's Day Logic Puzzle by Joyce Gill

Four members of EAC Youth Embroiderers' Chapters from across Canada each decided to complete one of the designs from this issue of YEN for Valentine's Day, and a fifth stitcher from another Chapter decided to stitch a piece from the last issue (the "Gingerbread Man"). Each of those stitchers also decided to do something to get an extra goodie.

1. The stitcher from Nanaimo did not stitch "Winged Dragon" or "Father Winter". She decided to answer a riddle to get her prize.
2. The stitcher who sent a drawing did not stitch "Remember Me" or "Snow", and she was not from Truro.
3. The stitcher who stitched the "Gingerbread Man" from the last issue decided to solve a puzzle to get her goodie.
4. The stitcher who sent the drawing did not stitch the "Winged Dragon" and was not from Victoria or Hudson.
5. The stitcher of "Remember Me" was not from Nanaimo.
6. The letter writer sent it from her Post Office in Truro.
7. Neither of the stitchers from St. John's or Victoria sent the joke.
8. The "Remember Me" design was completed by the stitcher who wrote the letter.
